"Dynamic and unstoppable..." - The New York Times

Hot on the heels of her PBS special (which featured the dancers from FELA! on stage with the artist) and her new album release, the internationally acclaimed recording artist Angelique Kidjo returns to the Arsht Center for one performance only! Kidjo's internationally celebrated repertoire includes collaborations with artists including Carlos Santana, Peter Gabriel, Alicia Keys, Josh Groban, Joss Stone, and more. Her 2008 album, Djin Djin, won the Grammy for Best Contemporary World Music album, and her new album Spirit Rising, which was featured on the PBS special. The album showcases Kidjo's breathtaking voice and exuberant spirit, which can only be experienced at one of her magical live performances. As The Boston Globe said, "Kidjo's appeal cuts across not only genres, but also generations..... Kidjo proves she can rattle the rafters."

Don't miss this phenomenal recording artist in her one-night-only appearance at the Arsht Center!
