Memorandum

Date: April 8, 2014

To: Honorable Chairwoman Rebeca Sosa
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: Carlos A. Gimenez
Mayor

Subject: Selection of Newspaper for Publication of Delinquent Tangible Personal and Real Property Tax Lists

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners approve the attached Resolution designating The Miami Times as the newspaper for publication of the 2014 lists of delinquent tangible personal property taxes, delinquent real property taxes and non-ad valorem assessments such as improvement liens and special assessments pertaining to the 2013 tax roll in accordance with §197.402, Florida Statutes (FS) and Rule 12D-13.036, Florida Administrative Code.

Scope

This action is countywide in scope.

Fiscal Impact/Funding Source

Approval of this resolution does not create a negative fiscal impact to the County. The cost of the advertising delinquent property taxes is paid by the Tax Collector at the time of advertising and is recovered from the taxpayers at the time taxes are paid or from investors when tax certificates are sold.

Track Record/Monitor

A similar resolution is submitted and has been approved by the Board annually as required by statute. The Tax Collector Division is responsible for providing advertising data to The Miami Times and proofing the advertisements for accuracy before they go to print.

Background

The rate of real and tangible personal property tax collection directly impacts the ability of local taxing authorities such as municipalities, the School Board and Miami-Dade County to deliver services. The collection of the 2013 real property and tangible personal property taxes began on November 1, 2013 and taxes become delinquent on April 1, 2014. Florida Statutes require the Tax Collector to issue warrants and to sell tax certificates to ensure the continued funding of essential governmental services provided by the various government taxing authorities authorized to levy and impose taxes. If taxes are not paid by May 31, 2014, tax certificates for real property taxes will be sold starting June 1, 2014 and tax warrants may be issued for tangible personal property at any time after delinquency.

FS Sub-§197.402(3) provides that the list of delinquent tangible personal property tax payers and the amount due by each, shall be published once within 45 days of the taxes becoming delinquent and that the list for delinquent real property taxes shall be advertised once each week for three consecutive weeks prior to the Tax Certificate Sale. In addition, §18-14 of the Miami-Dade County Code, FS §197.363 and FS §197.3632 require the advertisement of delinquent non-ad valorem assessments and improvement liens collected on the tax bill in the same manner as delinquent real property taxes.

FS §50.011 requires the delinquent tangible personal property tax and delinquent real property tax advertisements be placed in a newspaper that is published at least once a week, contains at least 25 percent of its words in English, is available for sale to the public and is generally available to the public for the publication of official or other notices. Newspapers that meet these statutory requirements were identified, invited to bid and are listed below:

Miami Today
Miami Daily Business Review
New Times
The Miami Herald
The Miami Times

The Miami Daily Business Review and The Miami Times responded. The lowest responsive bidder for the project was The Miami Times whose bid is as follows:

Delinquent tangible personal property taxes	$ 10,822.46
Delinquent real property taxes	38,370.54
TOTAL	$ 49,193.00

The Miami Times has experience in legal advertising having published the County's delinquent tangible personal property tax and delinquent real property tax advertisements in 2009 and 2011. The Miami Times also has data processing capabilities that provide efficient and reliable interfaces with the County data processing systems thereby enabling last-minute additions and deletions to the advertisement. These are key factors, coupled with The Miami Times experience, to avoid delays that could result in the invalidation of the annual Tax Certificate Sale, which generated $170 million of revenues for the local taxing authorities last year. The cost of advertising delinquent real property taxes is recovered at the time the tax certificates are sold and are ultimately borne by the delinquent taxpayers. Having previously published the voluminous delinquent tax listings (more than 300 newspaper pages), The Miami Times has demonstrated its ability to successfully complete this undertaking.

In addition to required legal advertising the Tax Collector's Office will continue its public awareness efforts by placing courtesy ads in The Miami Herald, The Miami Times, El Nuevo Herald, Diario De Las Americas, and Haiti En Marche. The Tax Collector's Office may also take full advantage of local periodicals in an attempt to capture further segments of the community that do not read the more circulated publications listed above. These courtesy advertisements are placed in March and April prior to the legally required advertisement in The Miami Times. The estimated cost of the additional courtesy advertising will cost the Tax Collector's Office approximately $10,000 based on previous year's expense.

The 311 Answer Center will be alerted to the Tax Collector's public awareness efforts and will be ready for the increased call volume. Answer Center Staff will be receiving refresher training on the delinquent tax process and Tax Collector staff will be onsite to provide technical support. The County's web portal as well as the Tax Collector's Webpage will be updated to provide the most up to date information including the published list of delinquent properties.

Potential investors will be directed to the Tax Collector's auction website and will also have a direct buyers line and e-mail address to answer technical questions. In addition, Tax Collector representatives regularly speak at community and homeowner meetings as requested regarding the taxing process.
