2025

AN EVENING HONORING
13 AMAZING WOMEN

In commemoration of Women's History Month and International Women's Day, Miami-Dade Parks, Recreation and Open Spaces Department, in partnership with the Parks Foundation of Miami-Dade and the Miami-Dade County Commission for Women, is proud to host the 36th Annual In the Company of Women Awards Ceremony. The event showcases and celebrates women achievers and leaders from all walks of life, who have helped to make this community better, stronger, and more united.

HONORABLE

DANIELLA LEVINE CAVA

MAYOR, MIAMI-DADE COUNTY

Congratulations to this year's recipients of the In the Company of Women Awards. As the first female Mayor of Miami-Dade County, I'm proud to stand with these extraordinary trailblazing women who work every day to empower and inspire women and girls of all ages. Their passion, leadership and commitment serve as a reminder that nothing is out of reach. I thank them for their civic and professional achievements that have helped shape this community. I also thank Miami-Dade Parks, Recreation & Open Spaces Department, the Miami-Dade Commission for Women, and the Parks Foundation of Miami-Dade for the wonderful opportunity to honor the winners during Women's History Month.

HONORABLE

ANTHONY RODRIGUEZ

CHAIRMAN, MIAMI-DADE COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, DISTRICT 10

Welcome to the 2025 In the Company of Women Awards. Tonight, we honor the exceptional women whose leadership, determination, and service have made a lasting difference in Miami-Dade County. These honorees exemplify what it means to inspire others, break barriers, and build a stronger future for all.

This event is more than just a celebration—it is a reminder of the vital role women play in shaping our community. Their resilience and accomplishments demonstrate the power of perseverance and the importance of supporting one another to achieve greatness. Thank you for joining us in recognizing these extraordinary individuals. Together, we can continue working toward a brighter future for the generations to come.

MARIA I. NARDI

DIRECTOR, MIAMI-DADE COUNTY PARKS, RECREATION AND OPEN SPACES

For the last 36 years, through the In the Company of Women Awards, Miami-Dade Parks has recognized the extraordinary accomplishments of women and their contributions to strengthening our community. Tonight, we celebrate a diverse group of 13 amazing women. Thank you for joining Parks in our shared endeavor to support the next generation of Miami-Dade County's women leaders, and to build a greener, healthier, and more resilient Miami-Dade County. Congratulations to all awardees!

MICHELLE ABREU

CHAIR, MIAMI-DADE COUNTY COMMISSION FOR WOMEN

The Miami-Dade County Commission for Women is honored to once again stand in partnership with the In the Company of Women Awards. This celebration shines a powerful light on the visionaries and changemakers shaping the future of Miami-Dade County. We extend our heartfelt congratulations to this year's extraordinary honorees and commend their unwavering dedication to uplifting women and girls across our community. Your leadership and impact inspire us all.

CAROLINE O'CONNOR

VICE PRESIDENT, THE PARKS FOUNDATION OF MIAMI-DADE

On behalf of the Parks Foundation of Miami-Dade, congratulations to this year's honorees! Thank you for all you do to support our community. We would also like to thank this year's event sponsors – thank you for helping us recognize these phenomenal women in our community and thank you for your year-round support of our county's parks and open spaces. Our honorees' contributions and our sponsors' support are what keep our community thriving!

HONOREES VIDEO AND AWARD PRESENTATION

EMCEE

KRISTI KRUEGER

Kristi Krueger has built a solid reputation as an award-winning medical reporter and effervescent anchor. She joined Local 10 as co-anchor of the 5:30 p.m. newscast and "Eye on Health" reporter in August 1993.

After many years co-anchoring the 6 p.m. and 11 p.m., Kristi now co-anchors the noon and multiple early evening newscasts, along with specializing in medical reporting.

As a mother and grandmother, she understands the importance of receiving useful and timely health news. She strives to provide cutting-edge information that allows viewers to make informed choices about their well-being.

Kristi began her broadcast career at WWSB in Sarasota. In September 1988, she was promoted to co-anchor of the weekday 6 p.m. and 11 p.m. newscasts. In 1990, she became the weekend anchor and medical reporter for WDIV-TV in Detroit before heading to WPLG.

Kristi's many awards and honors include the National Television Academy Silver Circle Award, Deborah Natansohn Award for her contributions to women's health and wellness, three Emmy awards for health/science/environment category and a University of Florida "Alumnus of Distinction" of the College of Journalism and Communications.

Kristi was born in Fresno, California but grew up in many places since her father was a football coach. She is married to Todd Templin, vice president of Boardroom Communications, a South Florida public relations firm. Todd and Kristi have two adult children, Troy and Kelsie, as well as a granddaughter named Palmer.

Kristi is very active in the community, serving on the board of the Susan B. Anthony Recovery Center, as Chair of the Pembroke Pines Relay for Life for the American Cancer Society. Kristi also volunteers as a lector at Saint Paul Lutheran Church in Weston.

MAYOR'S PIONEER AWARD

DR. MARIE O. ETIENNEFOUNDER, GLOBAL INNOVATIVE FOUNDATION

Dr. Marie O. Etienne, DNP, APRN, FNP, PNP, D.Min. (h.c.), PLNC, FADNL, is a trailblazing healthcare leader, educator, and humanitarian who has dedicated her life to serving the residents of Miami-Dade County. With more than three decades of service, Dr. Etienne is a force for positive change in public health, education, and community service. As a tenured professor at Miami Dade College's Benjamin León School of Nursing since 1997, she has mentored and educated countless healthcare professionals who now serve communities locally and abroad. Her expertise in pediatrics, geriatrics, family practice, and community health nursing has shaped generations of nurses.

Over the past five years, Dr. Etienne has worked closely with Mayor Daniella Levine Cava on numerous initiatives aimed at improving the well-being of the county's underserved populations. During the COVID-19 pandemic, she oversaw the organization and establishment of testing and vaccination sites in underserved communities. As the founder of Global Innovative Foundation, she provides support and resources to survivors of domestic violence, human trafficking, and gun violence—causes also prioritized by Mayor Levine Cava. She also coordinates medical missions to underserved areas in Florida, Haiti, and the Dominican Republic.

In 2023, Dr. Etienne is the first Black and minority nurse to serve as President of the Florida Nurses Association (FNA), representing more than 300,000 nurses from all specialties, including public health, pediatrics, and community health in critical healthcare policy decisions. She also serves on the American Nurses Association's National Commission to Address Racism in Nursing, where she advocates for equity and inclusivity in healthcare.

Dr. Etienne's work has earned her prestigious accolades, including the Florence Nightingale Medal from the International Red Cross and Congressional recognition from Congresswoman Frederica Wilson.

MAYOR'S PIONEER AWARD

RACHEL JOHNSONDEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF, OFFICE OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY MAYOR DANIELLA LEVINE CAVA

Rachel Johnson is a dynamic communications leader currently serving as the Deputy Chief of Staff for Mayor Daniella Levine Cava in Miami-Dade County. With a robust background in strategic communications, Rachel plays a pivotal role in shaping the Mayor's messaging and outreach strategies, ensuring that the voices of Miami-Dade residents are heard and represented. Since joining the Mayor's office in January 2022, she has focused on enhancing public engagement through innovative communication initiatives that emphasize transparency and inclusivity.

Before her current role, Rachel was the Director of Communications for the Mayor's Office, where she successfully implemented comprehensive communication plans that connected with diverse communities. Her experience as a strategic communications consultant for private and nonprofit sectors further honed her expertise in media relations and digital engagement. Prior to that, Rachel managed community marketing campaigns for Uber, leading efforts in disaster response and community advocacy.

A passionate advocate for women's empowerment, Rachel actively mentors emerging leaders and promotes initiatives that advance diversity within civic engagement. Her commitment to effective communication and community involvement reflects her dedication to fostering an inclusive Miami-Dade County, making her a true trailblazer in local governance.

CHRISTINE DUFFY

PRESIDENT, CARNIVAL CRUISE LINE

Christine Duffy is president of Carnival Cruise Line, certified as a “Great Place to Work™” and the flagship brand of Miami-based global cruise industry leader Carnival Corp., the world’s largest leisure travel company. Christine has served the company since 2015 after a successful tenure as president and CEO of the Cruise Lines International Association (CLIA), which represents the $120 billion global cruise industry.

As president, she leads Carnival Cruise Line’s fleet of 27 ships that homeport in North America, Europe and Australia and P&O Cruises Australia’s three ships that operate in the South Pacific. Together they sail six million guests annually and employ more than 52,000 people hailing from 120 nations. In 2025, P&O Cruises Australia’s operations will integrate into Carnival. Christine also led the introduction of Excel Class ships, cruise vessels that utilize liquefied natural gas (LNG), in North America and feature the first roller coasters at sea. Christine is also overseeing the development of Celebration Key, Carnival’s exclusive destination in The Bahamas, that will debut in summer 2025.

She is serving her second term on the U.S. Travel and Tourism Advisory Board, appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Commerce. She also serves on the board of directors of Aimbridge Hospitality and Herschend Family Entertainment and sits on the Professional Advisory Board of St. Jude Children’s Research Hospital. She received CLIA’s Hall of Fame Lifetime Achievement Award and was named to the Forbes 50 Over 50 List in the Lifestyle category (2024).

COMMUNICATIONS & LITERATURE

GLENNA MILBERG

NEWS ANCHOR/REPORTER, WPLG-CHANNEL 10

Emmy Award-winning journalist Glenna Milberg has been a prominent voice in South Florida's media landscape since joining Local10 News in September 1999. As the host of WPLG's highest-rated public affairs program, This Week in South Florida, she leads in-depth discussions with newsmakers on the most pressing stories and issues of the week.

Throughout her career, Glenna has covered Florida's most crucial stories from the Everglades to the coast and beyond. She reports comprehensively during election seasons and travels internationally to cover significant stories with a South Florida connection. Before elections, she hosts a special program aimed at explaining the amendments and the often-confusing language on the ballots, empowering viewers with the knowledge to make informed decisions.

Her work has earned her multiple accolades, including Emmy Awards and South Florida's Esserman-Knight Journalism Award. The Miami New Times named her South Florida's Best TV Reporter, highlighting her impact and dedication to journalism. In addition to her professional achievements, Glenna is known for her engagement with community and historical events.

A graduate of the University of Florida with a Bachelor of Arts in English and a Bachelor of Science in Broadcast Journalism from Florida International University, Glenna was recognized as an Outstanding Broadcast Journalist by her alma mater. Beyond her professional accomplishments, she is a dedicated mother and wife, raising two daughters with her husband Michael in South Florida.

SPORTS & ATHLETICS

KENDRA N. BULLUCK-MAJOR

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR,
ORANGE BLOSSOM CLASSIC

Kendra Bulluck-Major serves as the Executive Director of the Orange Blossom Classic, a collegiate football game played annually in Miami Gardens. She is one of two women in the country to own a football event property. The highly anticipated game was revived in 2021 and airs nationally on ESPN. The game has drawn viewership at close to one million, welcoming almost 40,000 in person fans to Hard Rock Stadium.

In 2022, Kendra launched the Elevate Now brand to equip women with tools to excel in their careers and entrepreneurial endeavors in sports and entertainment. The one-day women's conference, called the Elevation Experience provides resources to help women sharpen their leadership skills. In 2023, she authored the Elevate Now journal, designed to assist with goal tracking, self-reflection and accountability.

Kendra's primary and most fulfilling role involves being a mom to Malcolm and Horatio, III (Jojo). Malcolm is a college student-athlete (football) in his junior year at Florida A&M University, while Jojo is a high school sophomore, student-athlete (basketball) at Chaminade-Madonna College Preparatory. She resides in South Florida and remains active in her community.

YOUNG PROFESSIONAL

VANESSA JOSEPH, ESQ

ELECTED CITY CLERK,
CITY OF NORTH MIAMI

Vanessa Joseph earned a Bachelor's degree in Political Science, a Master of Public Administration and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Miami. Before fully launching her legal career, Joseph spent her years as a law student working as an advocate for immigration and human rights. During that period, she served at two legal clinics, where she fought on behalf of South Florida's immigrant community. She also advocated for veterans, people with disabilities, and individuals with HIV and AIDS. Joseph went on to join Catholic Legal Services, providing legal services to vulnerable populations. In addition to representing low-income immigrants, Vanessa conducts information sessions for immigrant detainees to inform them of their rights and court processes. Her work at the detention centers has led to her servicing thousands of men, women and children. Whether it be self-help workshops, group or individual orientations, Vanessa's impact on our immigrant population has been immeasurable.

Joseph also made history as the youngest and first Black female elected as the City of North Miami's City Clerk – a position she still holds. In 2024, the International Institute of Municipal Clerks (IIMC) certified her as a Master in Municipal Clerk, the highest achievement in her field. In addition, the organization also awarded Joseph the prestigious Robert N. Clark Memorial Award by the Florida Association of City Clerks (FACC) - an award spotlighting a city clerk who has substantially promoted and elevated the profession by actively seeking to constantly improve municipal government. Joseph is also using this platform to teach children about government, having written and published two children's books called Madame Clerk that are distributed locally for free.

In addition, Joseph is a member of numerous community-based and professional organizations and is an active member of the County's Domestic Violence Oversight Board which is at the forefront of combating the pervasive and devastating issue of domestic violence in our community.

In 2017, Joseph was named among the 20 Young Professionals Under 40 by the Haitian American Chamber of Commerce and among the 40 Under 40 by Legacy Magazine.

MIAMI-DADE PARKS, RECREATION & OPEN SPACES

Celebrating 36 years of

IN THE COMPANY OF WOMEN AWARDS

ABOUT IN THE COMPANY OF WOMEN AWARDS AND THE WOMEN'S PARK

The In the Company of Women Awards Ceremony celebrates women, Women's History Month, and Miami-Dade County Parks, the third largest parks system in the United States. Created in 1989 to promote community during a time when Miami-Dade County was experiencing significant transformations, the award was meant to bring our diverse community together. Local legends, Marjory Stoneman Douglas, Yvonne Santa Maria, Athalie Range, Elizabeth Virrick and Alice Wainwright received the Pioneer Award and were recognized for the role they played in paving new paths for women. During that inaugural event, Ann Bishop, Cheryl Brownstein-Santiago, Gloria Estefan, Gill Freeman, Carrie Meek, Queen Chiku N'gozi, Sister Jeanne O'Laughlin, Maria Elvira Salazar and Pam Saulsby became the first set of honorees because of their professional development, contribution to women's progress and service to the community.

Today, 36 years after its inception, In the Company of Women continues the legacy of honoring Miami-Dade County's most amazing women. While we celebrate these leaders during the awards ceremony, we also highlight the work and contributions of The Women's Park – a Miami-Dade Park which was created to recognize and celebrate the contributions of women who helped to improve our community's quality of life. It is the first park in the nation of its kind. In the early 1990s, pioneer feminist Roxcy Bolton created a coalition of women leaders including former Superintendent of Miami-Dade Parks, Silvia M. Unzueta, to lead the charge. The park was created in June 1992 with the help of the late Stephen Clark, former Miami-Dade Mayor, and with the support of the Board of County Commissioners and former Congresswoman Ileana Ros-Lehtinen. The Women's Park stands as a result of the dynamic interaction of diverse community leaders. Special thanks to the Park's District Commissioner, the Honorable Anthony Rodriguez, Chairman, Miami-Dade Board of County Commissioners, District 10.

PARKS FOUNDATION OF MIAMI-DADE

A 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization with a mission to advance and sustain the community's recreational, educational, environmental, and cultural life by mobilizing financial support and popular commitment to Miami-Dade County's parks system.

PANGEA KALI VIRGA

is Miami-Dade Parks' Deering Estate's Artist-in-Residence. Her art is deeply rooted in social responsibility and environmentalism, as she conveys urgent and complex messages in beautiful and engaging ways. Through layered fiber artworks, dramatic experiential art and performances, free public sustainable art and skills workshops, and collaborative projects with institutions, she brings these themes to life. Pangea makes art and wearables out of upcycled materials and nature using zero-waste practices. The artist's latest fiber work, Roots Rise Like Reaching Arms, is a portrait of the vital mangrove hammocks of South Florida. This patchworked landscape highlights the role this ecosystem plays in protecting us and the land from erosion and storms.

Virga has been featured in over 60 publications, exhibited in over a dozen exhibitions, and has been awarded over a dozen grants and residencies. She is currently an Artist In Residence with Oolite Arts.

Guitars Over Guns Organization (GOGO) is dedicated to empowering young people through music and mentorship. The organization strives to shift how young people perceive the world and their place within it. By sharing skills and experience rooted in a common passion for music, GOGO inspires students to envision a future filled with potential while fostering excitement and accountability.

The world changes when individuals find their voices and are given the opportunity to be heard. GOGO cultivates an enriching community bound by the arts, united through community-based performances, powered by high-quality instruction, and inspired by meaningful connections between professional musicians and the community's youth.

We're ready for One Day for Jackson 2025! Are you?

SAVE THE DATE AND JOIN US ON APRIL 3. YOUR SUPPORT WILL MAKE AN IMPACT!

On Thursday, April 3, Jackson Health Foundation will hold its second annual day of giving to raise funds exclusively for Jackson Health System. Last April, our inaugural "One Day for Jackson" was a huge success, raising more than $550,000 to support vital capital projects and lifesaving care at Jackson.

We have even bigger plans in store for 2025 and we're counting on your support!

Remember, just one person and one donation — on one day — can make a lasting impact and a significant difference for our community.

One day of giving. Everyday miracles.
