Subject: Letter of Intent to Participate in the Proposed Mobile Home Community Revitalization Project

Dear Mr. Peterson,

Legal Services of Greater Miami are pleased to express our intent to participate in the proposed Mobile Home Community Revitalization Project in partnership with Miami-Dade County's Office of Housing Advocacy. This collaboration aims to address critical housing needs mobile home residents throughout the county.

Legal Services of Greater Miami will undertake the following key activities within the scope of this project:

1. Legal Assistance for Eviction Prevention:
  - Provide pro bono legal representation and counseling to mobile home residents facing eviction from their plots.
  - Offer mediation services to resolve disputes between residents and park owners, fostering a cooperative living environment.
2. Outreach and Education:
  - Conduct targeted outreach campaigns to inform residents of their legal rights and available support services.
  - Facilitate community meetings and workshops to educate residents on housing laws, tenant rights, and the benefits of forming homeowner associations.
3. Support for Homeowner Associations:
  - Assist in the formation and development of homeowner associations within mobile home communities.
  - Provide training and resources to help associations advocate effectively for residents' needs and negotiate with park owners.

Legal Services of Greater Miami is committed to leveraging our extensive experience in housing advocacy to ensure the success of this project. We believe that our joint efforts will significantly enhance the financial and housing stability for mobile home residents in Miami-Dade County.
